Happy St. Martin Day

St. Martin Day Celebration 2025

On Monday, November 10th, we will be celebrating St. Martin Day under the theme:

"Back to Our Roots"
Fruits & Vegetables
Grown On St. Martin

A short assembly will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 10:15 a.m. in the gym hall.

Dress code for our students: Red, White, and blue (any combination) or a St. Martin cultural wear (floral print).

All clothing must be suitable and in accordance with our school's dress code.

Celebrations will also take place in the respective classrooms:

A St. Martin traditional lunch will be served while students learn more about St. Martin's history.

END-OF-TERM ASSESSMENT Group 3 - 8

Date: Thu, Nov 13th - 19th

We urge you to encourage your child(ren) to prepare well for the assessments. Sit with them and discuss the test schedule they received, and set aside a special time for reviewing daily.

Breast Cancer Awareness

In recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness month, various snacks were sold. A total of $610 will be presented to a representative of The Still Beautiful Foundation to assist in creating and promoting Breast Cancer awareness. This presentation will take place on Monday, November 10th, 2025.

A huge thank you to our students, parents, and teachers for your support!
